Citizens of Two Kingdoms

Religion is once more centre-stage around the world, Christianity has become polarised in America, secularism has taken hold in Europe, Christians departing the Middle East in ever-increasing numbers, and terrorism sweeping the globe. On top of all this, the world is facing a global financial meltdown.

How should Christians react to the new reality?

The Diversity Code

Today, diversity is a major issue for us all. The Diversity Code uses a series of 'Biblical Case Studies' to reveal the wonderful examples for dealing positively with diversity that Jesus set throughout His life and teachings. The course also considers the natural diversity of God's Creation, and the lessons learned by the early Church as she struggled to accept her universal mission. [Launching 2011]

Getting the Course

To offer the Awareness Course at your venue, you will need a DVD Module Pack. These can be purchased only from the Awareness Foundation either online or by sending a cheque to our office.

Each DVD Module Pack contains a Course Book for the Course Leader, 20 Study Packs for participants, and the Teaching DVD.

The cost of the Course Pack is £99 including UK p&p. Extra study packs can be ordered.

Sponsorship may be available to help with (or even meet) the costs of the Course for venues with very limited resources.

Enabling Dialogue

- 🌀 Build confidence: give your congregation a new security in their faith
- 🌀 Change attitudes: help your congregation to become more comfortable around other faiths
- 🌀 Equip for dialogue: enable your congregation to talk easily about their own faith with others
- 🌀 Sharing and shaping: show how to celebrate common ground and respect differences
- 🌀 Reach out: empower your congregation to build bridges with those of other faiths & cultures

The Awareness Course and Dialogue

Today, we live in a world of unparalleled diversity; huge demographic changes in the last thirty years mean that our neighbours and colleagues come from every part of the world, with different faiths, cultures and expectations.

The Awareness Course equips people for life in our diverse world, building participants' confidence, preparing and enabling them to enter into genuine dialogue with neighbours, friends and colleagues of any faith or world-view. The Course examines issues that affect every one of us, such as fundamentalism, the impact of globalisation, and secularism.

Over the period of the Course, participants learn to live without fear and without feeling that they have to compromise their own beliefs.

The course is Christian, celebrating our common ground with Judaism and Islam and respecting our differences.

Awareness Course DVD Modules

The Awareness Course is delivered through DVD Modules, each comprising eight hour-long sessions. Every session includes a mix of teaching and group activities/discussion.

The Course is designed to be enjoyable and easy to teach. Professionally-produced teaching videos and an effective teaching approach makes the Course Leader's role that of facilitator and motivator rather than lecturer.

The Course can be taught anywhere - in churches, cathedrals, house groups, schools, colleges, universities, community centres, offices, prisons and in any appropriate space.

Extracts of the course materials, including the Course Book and the Teaching DVD, are available on our website.

Two modules are currently available:
Citizens of Two Kingdoms and
The Diversity Code (2011)
